Traffic Planning and Management are integrated activities involving traffic engineering, land-use planning, social science, economics and environmental issues associated with the safe and efficient movement of people and goods.

AITPM is an association of people practising in these fields, and the 2009 Victorian Branch Back to Basics seminar will provide an excellent opportunity for AITPM members, traffic engineers, transport and land use planners and elected representatives to enhance their skills in these areas.

The program features expert speakers who will introduce an overview and general guidelines and requirements of specific areas of traffic engineering and transport planning. Refer to the program on the back page.
